Vienna, May 16.

THe Imperial Court is now at Laxemburg, from whence it will return hither in eight or ten days, and remove to Prague or Lintz the beginning of the next Month, it not being thought fit for the Empreſs to lye-in here in the preſent Conjunſture of Affairs. The Imperial Army was Encamped on Friday laſt near Raab, and our Letters ſay they would Decamp again in a day or two, and march towards the Turkiſh Territories. Two days agone paſſed by this place three great Boats with Soldiers for Hungary, who are to joyn the Army, whither are likewiſe ſent eight Half Cannon, and four great Mortar-Pieces. The Emperor has ordered the 5000 Hungarians that were at the General Rendezvous, to march to the Iſle of Schutz, and to remain there till farther Order. From Hungary we have advice, That the Turks are drawing together in the Neighbourhood of Offen, and that they have already 40000 Men there; That Count Teckeley continues to beſiege the Caſtle of Panowitz, notwithſtanding the King of Poland had ſent to him to let him know, That if he went on in that Siege, he would ſend a Body of Men to relieve the place. Count Maximilian of Staremburg (who is at preſent Governor of Philipsburg) is appointed by the Emperor to have the chief command of the Imperial Troops that are in the Empire; and Count Leſlie who is now there, is ordered to go for Hungary. We are told, That the Dukes of Lunenburg are to furniſh a certain number of Men for the Emperor's Service, and that in conſideration thereof his Imperial Majeſty is to pay them a Sum of Money. The Emperor has reſolved to ſend a ſolemn Embaſſy to the Czars of Moſcovy, to invite them to enter into the Alliance now lately concluded between his Imperial Majeſty and the King of Poland againſt the Turks.

Vienna, May 16. We have not as yet any certain advice, where the Grand Vizier is; there were Letters the laſt Week which gave an account of his arrival at Greicks-Weiſſenburg, and of his having appointed the general Rendezvous near Belgrade on the 24th of this Month, but the advices we have received from Hungary of a freſher Date do not make any mention thereof, but tell us, That there are 40000 Turks in the Neighbourhood of Offen, under the command of the Baſſa of that place. The Imperial Army, according to our laſt advices, was Encamped near Raab; ſeveral Troops are ſtill Marching to joyn it, and we are told, That it conſiſts at preſent of 40000 Men, who are all very well Cloathed, and in good order.

Cologne, May 21. There are Letters from Liege which tell us, That the Magiſtrates and the Deputies of the 32 Trades or Companies have reſolved to agree to the Tax of the 60th Penny, and that of four Sols upon every Tun of Beer, which (if the ſaid Companies do approve of what their Deputies have done) will put an end to the differences that have ſo long depended between his Electoral Highneſs and that City, and been the occaſion of ſo much diſorder at Liege.

Antwerp, May 27. On Friday laſt the Prince of Orange arrived at Breda, from whence he parted again on Sunday Morning early: The ſame day the Marquis de Grana arrived here from Bruſſels; immediately after, he went, accompanied with a great many Perſons of Quality, to meet his Highneſs: They came both hither about eight in the Evening. The next Morning they had a long Conference together, and this day his Highneſs returned for Holland, and his Excellency to Bruſſels. We are at preſent very quiet in theſe Parts, and hear not of the motion of any Troops near us.

Hague, May 28. The 26th Inſtant the Prince of Orange, who has been at Breda and Antwerp, (at which laſt place he had an Enterview with the Governor of the Spaniſh Netherlands) returned to Honſlaerdyke. The States of Holland are ſeparated till the middle of June. Lieutenant Admiral Tromp, who is to command the Squadron of Ships which this State will have abroad this Summer, has frequent Conferences with the Deputies for Maritime Affairs, and thoſe of the Admiralty; The States-General have ſent Deputies to the States of Frizeland and Groningen, to preſs them to ſend in their conſents to this Equipage.

Paris, May 29. Their Moſt Chriſtian Majeſties, accompanied with the Duke and Dutcheſs of Orleans, parted from Verſailles the 26th Inſtant, and lay that Night at Corbeil, and the next day at Montereau. The Dauphineſs remains at Verſailles, by reaſon of her being with Child, and the Dauphin will ſtay there till the fourth of the next Month, and will meet the King at Dijon. We do expect here in few days the Biſhop of Fano, the Pope's Nuncio, who arrived the 15th Inſtant at Marſeilles, in one of the Pope's Galleys, from Civita Vecchia. The Sieur de St. Romain is preparing for his Embaſſy to Portugal.

Plimouth, May 20. Yeſterday in the Afternoon came into this Port His Majeſties Ship the Dover, having, about 40 Leagues to the Weſtward of the Lizard, ſprung her Main-Maſt; ſhe will in few days have ſet a new one, and proceed on her Voyage.

Oxford, May 22. On Friday about ſeven a Clock in the Evening their Royal Highneſſes and the Lady Ann, being conducted by a Troop of 200 Horſe, of the principal Gentry of the County, led by the Right Honourable James Earl of Abington, came to this place, where they were received at the Eaſt Gate by the Mayor and Aldermen and Citizens, who made a Preſent of Gloves, according to the cuſtom of this City. The Vice-Chancelor and Doctors, with the reſt of the Univerſity, paid their Attendance at St. Maries, where the Or-
